Attendance requirements

Attendance is very important as almost everything learned is hands on and participatory. A student may miss up to 3 days without having to complete make-up work, as long as 12 hours prior notice is given before each day missed. If 4-6 days are missed, the student must make-up in one of three ways: 1-completing homework assigned by the appropriate teacher. 2-private tutoring with the teacher. Or 3-self study and demonstration message on a teacher, at the teacher's tutoring rate. If more than 6 days are missed, a meeting will be held between director and student to evaluate the student's continued interest and to decide if withdrawal is necessary. If more than 6 days are missed without asking for a Leave of Absence, the student will be withdrawn.
